IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE OF BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CONTEMPT PETITION NO. 171 OF 2003

The Judge Co-op. Court No.IV,Mumbai. ..Petitioner.

V/s.

Shri K.K.Parmar & Ors. ..Respondents.

WITH

CONTEMPT PETITION NO.150 OF 2003

Shri Ganesh Kamath & Anr. ..Petitioners.

V/s.

Shri K.K.Parmar & Ors. ..Respondents.

Mr.R.V.Rao with Mr. I.V.Rao, for petitioners in C.P.No.150.03.

Mr.L.S.Gaikwad for Respondent Nos.2 to 5.

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR,J

DATE : APRIL 12, 2006.

P.C. :

1. Counsel for the petitioner in cognate Contempt Petition NO.150 of 2003 submits that parties have amicably settled all their disputes and the petitioner in the said contempt petition is not interested in precipitating the matter any further. In the circumstances, both these petitions are disposed of. Notices issued to the respondents stands discharged. Communication sent to the advocate for petitioner dated 15th March, 2006 was tendered across the bar. However, as it is addressed to the advocate, the same is returned back after noting the contents thereof that Mr.Kamath and Mr. Anand have instructed the advocate to withdraw the petition.